DOES MANAGING DATA KEEP YOU FROM FOCUSING ON YOUR MISSION?

You do what you do because you're passionate about your MISSION, not managing mailing lists, submitting reports or tracking donors, right?

The Elderberry Database System was designed to put YOU in control of your data, giving you more time to focus on your mission.

Take a look at some of the features of this user-friendly, flexible system listed on the inside pages of this brochure.

Call 1-800-320-1707 for more information.

What is Elderberry Institute?

Elderberry Institute is a non-profit Resource Center that helps local communities develop and maintain their own Living at Home/Block Nurse Programs. We developed the simple to use Elderberry Database System to be used in those real-world non-profit volunteer based programs. It is already being used by dozens of non-profits to easily track services, manage data for reporting, create contact and mailing lists, and many other functions.
